Is Agriculture Impacting on the Countryside? - EIA's & Agriculture JAMES WHILDING TO PRESENT AT RICS SEMINAR

James Whilding, MRICS, Planning Consultant for Acorus Rural Property Services Ltd will be presenting on 'Is Agriculture Impacting on the Countryside? - EIA's and Agriculture' at a RICS seminar in October 2009.

This topic will cover how greater control through planning legislation is being placed on the industry to ensure that the impact of new development is carefully considered. Particular reference is made to the Town and Country Planning (Environmental Impact Assessment) (England and Wales) Regulations 1999 and developments requiring planning permission.

The Rural, Planning and Development Seminar will also cover other relevant topics by local experts including The Planning Process and Protection of Wildlife, Land Covenants and Uplift Clauses, Private Rights of Way, Knotweed and NVZ Update.

The event, to be held on 22nd October, 2009 at the Sedgemoor Auction Centre in North Petherton, will run from 13:00 to 17:30 and is aimed at all rural surveyors and planning and development surveyors.

Delegate fees and booking details can be found at <http://www.rics.org/> or contact RICS Events Bookings on 020 7695 1600 quoting reference 7051.
