TIED PROPERTIES – the pros and cons BRIAN BARROW TO PRESENT AT BLENHEIM PALACE CONFERENCE

Brian Barrow, Managing Director of Acorus Rural Property Services Ltd will be speaking at the Rural Property and Business Tenancies Conference at Blenheim Palace on Wednesday 27th February, 2008. The event, sponsored by Lloyds TSB Agriculture promises to provide practical solutions to today's rural business issues.

The one day conference is aimed at those working at the grass roots of the rural business industry and will provide a platform for debating the issues involved ensuring delegates are up to date with the latest legislation and best practice for property management.

The event boasts a pedigree programme from a wealth of professional experts who will address the issues which arise for the rural business managers of today. Brian's session will focus on the market for agriculturally and other tied properties, looking at:

- The market for such properties
- Valuation issues
- Is there a link between farm incomes and value
- Removal of agricultural ties by reference to planning applications and appeals
- Implications of non compliance

Following the event, a copy of the presentation will be available from www.acorus.co.uk.
